

April 17, 1973

SPEAKER: Senator Marvel.

SENATOR STAHMER: Senator Marvel, would it be possible to get one or two of the staff men up here and have them look at these bills right before we're getting ready to pass them and you could make an announcement if there is a fiscal impact on any one of them?

SENATOR MARVEL: If, if Senator Stull, who's the introducer of the motion wants us to do that, yes.

SENATOR STAHMER: I see Eldon is here now. He could do that if we so wanted him.

SPEAKER: Senator Fred Carstens. Excuse me, were you finished, Senator Stahmer.

SENATOR STAHMER: Well, perhaps Senator Stull could respond to that if he wants it done or not.

SPEAKER: Senator Stull.

SENATOR STAHMER: Senator Stull, would it be alright with you, would this meet your approval to have the fiscal ma--our fiscal staff analyst look at these bills before they come up and he can tell Senator Marvel whether there is or isn't any fiscal impact in any of them.

SENATOR STULL: I have no objection to that.

SENATOR STAHMER: Well, I suggest we do this then and before each bill is read, so that and they can look down the list ahead of time and tell us whether it's $5,000 impact or $10,000 or $10,000,000 and what the fiscal impact is.

SPEAKER: Do you want to make that part of your amendment Senator Stull or not? Well, the Clerk thinks it can be construed in there so let's pass on. Senator Fred Carstens.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Mr. President, I would like to ask--I'm getting a little confused here. I'd like to ask Senator Stull a question if I may.

SPEAKER: Senator Stull, Senator Carstens wants to ask you a question.

SENATOR STULL: Yes.

SENATOR CARSTENS: When you're talking about final reading, I thought at the beginning when you made the motion you meant you were talking about those bills now on final reading--

SENATOR STULL: All of them as they come up, yes.

SENATOR CARSTENS: --you mean tomorrow and next day and next day and so on?

SENATOR STULL: Yes.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Read every bill on final reading?

SENATOR STULL: Yes.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Alright, now as the motion now stands, it excludes bills that have fiscal impact, right?

SENATOR STULL: Except those. It would be all bills except those having fiscal impact.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Except-- alright.
